

SarasotaMOD Weekend 2015 At-a-Glance

SarasotaMOD.com

Friday, Nov 6, 2015 Opening Day

Presentation 1: Twitchell and Rudolph, $40

2 to 3:15 pm, Sainer Auditorium, New College

Paul Rudolph's first job in Sarasota was with architect Ralph Twitchell. Christopher Wilson, professor at Ringling College of Art + Design, will lead the panel in a discussion of Twitchell's work and the complex relationship between Twitchell and Rudolph. The panel includes architect John Howey, one of Twitchell's last partners Richard Allen, architect and author Joe King and Twitchell's granddaughter Julie Hutchins-Wilson.

Presentation 2: The Walker Guest House and the Replica $40

3:30 to 4:45 pm, Sainer Auditorium, New College

SAF's replica of the Walker Guest House is the highlight of MOD this year. Author and architectural critic, Alastair Gordon and his panel will explore this remarkable structure, the "spider in the sand" and the "lessons learned" in building the replica. The panel includes architect longtime admirer of the Guest House Joyce Owens, AIA, architect and builder of the replica, Joe King, and a Walker family member.

Opening Party at the Walker Guest House Replica, $40

5 to 6:30 pm, The Ringling

Join us for the official opening and tour of SAF's Replica of Paul Rudolph's Walker Guest House, visit the exhibit Paul Rudolph: The Guest Houses in The Ringling Museum of Art, and meet the MOD speakers and special guests. Enjoy the wonderful displays of vegetables, charcuterie, artisan cheeses plus a nosh bar. Cash bar.

Friday Private Home Dinner Parties

7 to 10 pm

Umbrella House Cocktail Party + Harkavy House Dinner (Paul Rudolph) $500

Sponsored by Bob and Anne Essner

Round House (Jack West) Cocktail Party and House Tour, $100

Saturday, Nov 7, 2015 Tour Day

Breakfast at The Francis Included with Presentation 3

8 to 9 am, 1289 N. Palm Avenue

Start the day with a delicious Continental Breakfast Buffet... danishes, muffins, croissants plus fresh fruits, honey yogurt with toasted coconut cashew granola, fresh juices and coffee and tea.

Presentation 3: Rudolph's Sarasota Houses, $50 Includes Breakfast

9 to 10:30 am, The Francis, 1289 N. Palm Avenue

Co-authors of the beautiful, newly reprinted book, "Paul Rudolph: The Florida Houses," Christopher Domin and Joe King will present the innovative houses Rudolph designed in the late 1940s and 1950s. This primer on Rudolph's early work is the perfect introduction for MOD's Trolley Tours of Siesta Key, the Walking Tours of Lido Shores, and the Umbrella House.

Trolley Tours: Paul Rudolph's Sarasota, $90 Includes Breakfast and Presentation 3

11 am to 1:30 pm

10:45 Boarding at The Francis, 1289 N. Palm Avenue

Trolley 1: John McCarthy tour guideTrolley 2: Larry Kelleher tour guide

Enjoy a classic trolley tour of Paul Rudolph's Siesta Key houses. Sights will include Sarasota High School, the Cocoon House, the Lamolithic House, the David Cohen House, the Revere Quality House and Sanderling Beach Club.

Vintage Lido Shores Walking Tours

$35, Christopher Wilson tour guideTour 1: 10 am to 12 pm (Checkin 9:45 am)Tour 2: 2 pm to 4 pm (Checkin 1:45 pm)

The Sarasota neighborhood of Lido Shores is a treasure chest of midcentury modern architectural gems from the Sarasota School movement including architects Paul Rudolph, Tim Seibert, William Rupp and Carl Abbott. Ringling College of Art + Design professor of architecture and design history Christopher Wilson will take you on an informative and inspiring tour of some of the most significant vintage homes in the area. Please wear comfortable shoes, sunscreen and hats. Bottled water will be provided.

Thanks to Our Lead Sponsors

Diamond Sponsor

Gold Sponsor

Gold Sponsor

Partner

Partner

Partner

Magazine Sponsor

Presented by

SarasotaMOD Weekend 2015 At-a-Glance Continued

SarasotaMOD.com

Saturday, Nov 7, 2015 Tour Day

Contemporary Lido Shores Walking Tours

$35, Harold Bubil tour guide

Tour 3: 10 am to 12 pm (Checkin 9:45 am)

Tour 4: 2 pm to 4 pm (Checkin 1:45 pm)

Lido Shores is an architecturally rich neighborhood, full of award-winning modernist homes by prominent local architects including Don Chapell, Mark Sultana, Guy Peterson and Jonathan Parks. Join Sarasota Herald-Tribune real estate editor Harold Bubil as he leads you on a walking tour of some of the most impressive and significant contemporary homes in Sarasota. Please wear comfortable shoes, sunscreen and hats. Bottled water will be provided.

Paul Rudolph's Umbrella House Tours, $40

Choose one of 4 timed-tours of the interior of the house. Each tour includes a brief talk about the house and Rudolph.

11 am to 11:45 am 1 pm to 1:45 pm

12 pm to 12:45 pm 2 pm to 2:45 pm

Sunday, Nov 8, 2015 - At The Ringling

Presentation 4: We Knew Rudolph, $40

10:30 to 11:45 am, Historic Asolo Theater, The Ringling

This panel of architects will talk about their personal experiences of learning from and working with Paul Rudolph. Larry Scarpa, FAIA, Principal, Brooks + Scarpa, 2014 Smithsonian National Design Award winner, will moderate the panel that includes Carl Abbott, FAIA, youngest member of the Sarasota School of Architecture and a student of Rudolph's at Yale, and Roberto de Alba, the author of Paul Rudolph: The Late Work.

Picnic Lunch, $35

12 to 1:30 pm, Walker Guest House Replica, The Ringling

Enjoy the cool shadows of the Guest House and build your own sandwich...turkey, pepper jack cheese and avocado mash or prosciutto and cappacola hogie with burrata or tuna "Nicoise" with capers and arugula. Plus orzo salad, potato salad, chips and cookies. Cash Bar.

Presentation 5: Rudolph After Sarasota $40

1:45 to 3 pm, Historic Asolo Theater, The Ringling

Timothy M. Rohan, author of The Architecture of Paul Rudolph, Yale University Press, 2014, will focus his presentation on Rudolph's work after he left Sarasota in 1958 to become chair of Yale University's Department of Architecture. Rohan will start his discussion with Rudolph's 1960 Addition to Sarasota High School and conclude with Rudolph's remarkable projects in Southeast Asia.

Sarasota High School Rudolph Celebration, $20

4:30 to 6:30 pm

1000 South School Avenue

The breezeway of Paul Rudolph's 1960 Sarasota High School complex is the perfect setting for an early evening soirée. Tour the newly renovated interior and exterior, munch on hors d'oeuvres, feel the school spirit with the SHS cheerleaders and enjoy the musical stylings of the Sarasota High Jazz Band.

Saturday Private Home Dinner Parties

7 to 10 pm

Sandy Hook (Seibert Architects) Residence Cocktail and Dinner Party, $150

Rae Residence (Ralph Twitchell) Retro Martini Party, $100

Sponsored by Louis Wery, Premier Sotheby's International Realty

Presentation 6: The Rudolph Legacy, $40

3:15 to 4:30 pm, Historic Asolo Theater, The Ringling

C. Ford Peatross, founding director of the architectural archive at the Library of Congress, home of the Rudolph Archive, will discuss Rudolph's legacy with Sean Khorsandi, co-director of the Paul Rudolph Foundation, Carl Abbott, FAIA, SAF's mentor, and Erica Stoller, director of ESTO and co-author of Ezra Stoller: Photographer.

Closing Party and BBQ Supper, $60

5 to 8:30 pm, Walker Guest House Replica, The Ringling

MOD's 2015 Closing Party at The Ringling bids farewell to an amazing weekend. Enjoy cocktails as the sun sets over Sarasota Bay and then get serious with the best BBQ in Sarasota. Black angus beef brisket and Southern-style pulled pork with baked beans, potato salad, creamy coleslaw plus kale caesar. Finish at the pie bar... apple, peach, blueberry and pecan pies... all homemade! MOD's last bash is a great way to celebrate the opening of SAF's Walker Guest House Replica, on exhibit at The Ringling through October 2106. Cash bar.

SarasotaMOD Tickets On Sale

www.sarasotamod.eventbrite.com