

Entry deadline nears for taking part in The A' Design Award - It is now the time to Sign Up Your Greatest Works

A' Design Award is the World's largest international design competition. The A' Design Awards are organized in all creative fields to bring out the excellent designers from all countries in all disciplines. Entries to the A' Design Accolades are peer-reviewed and anonymously judged by an influential jury panel of experienced scholars, important press members and experienced professionals. A' Design Awards promises grandeur, prestige, publicity and international recognition to The A' Design Award Laureates through the Coveted A' Design Prize which is given to celebrate all awarded designs.

The "A' Design Prize" is the most inclusive reward for award winning designers "A' Design Prize" includes but not limited to : international design excellence certificate in metal frame, invitation to the exclusive gala-night in Italy, both online and physical exhibition of awarded works, A2 poster of awarded projects, hardcover annual of best works, award winners' trophy, international press campaign, interview with the award winning designer, press release preparation and distribution, award winning design mark, pitching awarded works to thousands of other publications, publicity through design award press partners, inclusion in World Design Rankings as well as access to further marketing and PR tools.

The A' Design Award has a philanthropic goal to advance society by pushing the frontiers of science, design, and technology forward by creating incentives for innovators to come up with better ideas. The "A' Design Award's Awarded Design" logo, given to all awarded designs, signifies original, functional and friendly designs that make the world a better place.

Annually, projects that focus on innovation, art, design and creativity worldwide are awarded with the A' Design Award. Entries to A' Design Award are accepted in categories such as Architectural Design, Communication Design, Industrial Design, and more. The complete list of award categories are available here.

Entries are accepted annually until February 28th and results are announced every year on April 15, at the end of World Design Days. Designers from across the globe are invited to join the accolades by entering their greatest works, projects and products.
