

HOME|any|more|? Bucharest Triennale East Centric Architecture

Bucharest, October 7-20, 2019

Call for projects and papers

For more than 20 years, The Arhitext Design Foundation has been developing editorial and cultural projects that raise awareness of the national and international state of architecture, urbanism, design and visual arts. The most important projects of the Foundation are the Arhitext Magazine and the Bucharest Triennale, dedicated to the Central and Eastern European region. In October 2019, the Foundation, in partnership with the Romanian Order of Architects and the "Ion Mincu" University of Architecture and Urbanism will organize the third edition of the Bucharest Triennale East Centric Architecture. The main topic of this edition, HOME|any|more|?, proposes an interrogative approach of the possibility of being at home in today's world.

The president of the curatorial team of this edition is the writer, poet and translator Bogdan Ghiu. Some of the prestigious guests who already confirmed their participation this year are Sarah Robinson (USA / Italy), Marc Jay (Denmark), Eva Prats & Ricardo Flores (Flores & Prats Architects, Barcelona). The previous editions of the Triennale (2013, 2016) brought together renowned architects, professors and theorists, such as Svetlana Boym (Russia/SUA), Dietmar Feichtinger (Austria/France), Terunobu Fujimori (Japan), Barbara Holub (Austria), Robert Mair (Austria), Willem Jan Neutelings (Olanda), Juhani Pallasmaa (Finland), Alberto Pérez-Gómez (Canada/Mexico), Boris Podrecca (Austria), Sami Rintala (Norway), Vladimír Šlapeta (Czech Republic), Ana Maria Zahariade (Romania).

The geographical focus of the Triennale is the Central and Eastern European region, including the following countries: Albania, Austria, Belarus, Bosnia Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Czech Republic, Cyprus, Estonia, Latvia, Macedonia, Moldova, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Russia, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Turkey, Ukraine, Hungary. The two main events of the Triennale are the thematic exhibition *HOME|any|more|? and the essay contest *Critical Discourses. Two calls were launched in November 2018, open for practitioners and theorists concerned with the specific issues of this region.

Call for projects for the thematic exhibition HOME|any|more|?

The thematic exhibition is the central event of the Triennale, aiming to offer a panorama of the way architecture responds to the current needs and to the specific context of Central and Eastern Europe. The call is addressed to professionals in the field of architecture, urban planning or design working in Central and Eastern Europe, who are invited to submit projects that were completed between 2016 and 2019. The selected projects will be included in the exhibition and its catalogue.

The extended deadline for submitting projects: 24.02.2019

For more information: <https://bucharest-triennale.eu/thematic-exhibition/>

Call for papers for the Critical Discourses contest

The call is open to those interested in contributing from a theoretical point of view to the analysis of the main theme of the Triennale. Regardless of the geographical origin or the theoretical background of the authors, the expected articles or essays should focus on the Central and Eastern European region. The authors of the texts nominated by a jury presided by Sarah Robinson will be invited at the Triennale to present their work. The winning contributions will be awarded.

The deadline for submitting short proposals is 25.02.2019. The final texts are expected by 25.03.2019.

For more information: <https://bucharest-triennale.eu/critical-discourses-essay-contest-open-call/>

The Triennale is organised by Arhitext Foundation and financed by the Architecture Stamp from the Romanian Order of Architects.

For more details on the theme of this edition, guests, calendar and future events, please visit the website of the Bucharest Triennale East Centric Architecture: <https://bucharest-triennale.eu>.

The official language of the Triennale is English.

Organizer: Arhitext Design Foundation

Main Partner: Romanian Order of Architects

Partners: "Ion Mincu" University of Architecture and Urbanism | Union of Architects in Romania

arhitext[®]

ORDINUL
ARHITECTILOR
DIN ROMANIA

Universitatea
de Arhitectură și Urbanism
"Ion Mincu"

UNIUNEA
ARHITECTILOR DIN
ROMANIA